Students Repeating a Course Policy and Procedure

Policy: Students who have either failed a required nursing course or have withdrawn from a required nursing course must repeat the course in its entirety.

Purpose: The Students Repeating a Course policy and procedure are intended to inform College of Nursing students that when repeating a course, they must repeat the entire course and not just a portion of the course.

Scope: Office of Student Affairs
Repeating a Course

1. Students who have either failed a required nursing course or withdrawn from a required nursing course will need to repeat the course in order to earn a credit for that course.
2. The course must be repeated in its entirety.
3. A student cannot retake the course and begin the coursework where they originally left off.
